MISSION STATEMENT

The Pentecostal Assemblies of the West Indies International exists to fulfil the purpose of God by transforming people and communities everywhere, by the gospel of Jesus Christ and through the power and manifestation of the Holy Spirit, for the glory of God.

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS WE BELIEVE THAT:

1. God's purpose concerning man is to seek and to save the lost, to be worshipped by man, and to build a body of believers in the image of His Son; that these believers, saved and called out of the world, constitute the body or church of Jesus Christ built and established upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone (Ephesians 4:11-13).
2. The members of the body, the Church (Ecclesia) of Jesus Christ, are enjoined to assemble for worship, fellowship, counsel and instruction in the Word of God, the work of the ministry and the exercise of those spiritual gifts and offices provided for New Testament church order (Hebrews 10:25);
3. The early apostolic churches came together in fellowship as a representative body of saved, spirit-filled believers who, under the supervision of the Holy Spirit, set over the Church the five-fold ministry which is set forth as the pattern for the leadership of PAWI (Ephesians 4:11).
4. The purpose of PAWI is to be an agency of God for evangelizing the world, a Fellowship in which people may worship God, and a channel of God's purpose to build a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son (Ephesians 4:12).
5. PAWI exists expressly to give continued emphasis to all the above as indicated in the New Testament apostolic pattern, by teaching and encouraging the baptism of the Holy Spirit with signs following, thereby bringing a new dimension to worship and the demonstration of the fruit and gifts of the Spirit for the edification of the body of Christ (Acts 1:8).
6. PAWI is a fellowship of Pentecostal believers from Assemblies or other bodies of like faith throughout the Caribbean and elsewhere, whose purpose is to recognize and promote scriptural methods and order for worship, unity, fellowship, the work and business for God, and endeavor to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, "till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ" (Ephesians 4:13).

9.8.4 TERM OF OFFICE

The term of office of all officers of the Assembly, except the Pastor(s), shall be specified by the Assembly and shall be subject to termination by death, voluntary resignation, expiration of the assigned term or failure to maintain the spiritual qualities required of an officer of the Assembly.

9.9 ORDINANCES AND OBSERVANCES

The following ordinances and observances shall be recognized by the Fellowship:

9.9.1 WATER BAPTISM

Baptism by immersion in water, according to Matthew 28:19, signifies in type the death of the “old man” and the resurrection to new life in Christ (Romans 6:4-6; Ephesians 4:22-24). It shall be administered to all who have repented of their sins, believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, and demonstrated a sincere desire to accept His Lordship over their lives (Colossians 2:12).

9.9.2 THE LORD’S SUPPER

The Lord’s Supper shall be administered only to baptized believers. It shall be observed in memory of the death of Christ and with the fervent hope of His return to earth (Matthew 26:26-30; Luke 22:19-20; 1 Corinthians 11:23-26). Each participant is expected to undergo a thorough self-examination before partaking, lest he does so unworthily (1 Corinthians 11:28).

9.9.3 DEDICATION OF CHILDREN

In this ceremony, parents/guardians bring their infants to the Assembly to present them to the Lord in an act of gratitude and consecration (Mark 10:13-16; Psalm 127:3; 1 Samuel 1:28, 29). In doing so, the parents/guardians testify to an earnest desire for their children to be reared under Christian influence so that they may later make a personal decision to follow the Lord. The parents/guardians also make a solemn promise to maintain a true Christian life and to be an example and guide to their children. At least one parent/guardian must accompany the child for dedication.

9.9.4 PRAYER FOR BAPTISM WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT

This shall be done in accordance with Acts 8:15.

9.9.5 PRAYER FOR THE SICK

This practice is mentioned throughout the Bible and especially in James 5:14-16 and shall be observed in the Fellowship.

9.9.6 CHRISTIAN MARRIAGE

This practice is observed in accordance with Genesis 2:18-24, Matthew 19:5-6, John 2:1-2, and Hebrews 13:4.

- 9.9.6.1 marriage shall be solemnized between two believers with mutual agreement
- 9.9.6.2 No marriage shall be solemnized between a believer and an unbeliever.
- 9.9.6.3 No marriage shall be solemnized between two persons of the same sex.
- 9.9.6.4 In the case of a heterosexual common-law relationship the decision whether or not to marry the couple shall be left to the discretion of the Pastor.
- 9.9.6.5 Fellowship ministers shall be permitted to solemnize a marriage where either party has been divorced and the former companion was still living, with the following stipulations and after consultation with the District Presiding Bishop:
  - 9.9.6.5.1 Where a marriage has broken down after every attempt at reconciliation has been exhausted, and where one party has been found to be guilty of infidelity, the offended party shall be allowed to remarry according to biblical injunction.
  - 9.9.6.5.2 Where persons who get saved and come into our Assemblies already divorced, and express a desire to remarry, they shall be given permission to remarry after counseling.
- 9.9.6.6 Persons in our assemblies who are divorced and remarried may be permitted to participate in areas of ministry below pastoral level and such other areas as may be determined from time to time by the General Conference.

- 9.9.6.7 Persons divorced and remarried shall not hold positions at the District Executive, National Executive or General Executive level.
- 9.9.6.8 Ministers are cautioned that the sanctity of marriage is still to be observed as the Fellowship standard for all ministers, and although the Fellowship may arrive at new positions on the matter of divorce and remarriage, every effort shall be made by ministers to preserve family values, the integrity of the Fellowship and more so, Christian principles.

9.9.7 DISPOSAL OF THE DEAD

This practice is derived from 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 and Acts 5:6; 8:2. Pastors shall have the prerogative to conduct services for disposal of the dead in accordance with state laws. The Fellowship shall not observe the practice of prayers for the dead.

- 9.10.7.1 Should a member of an Assembly be accused of a fault which adversely affects the spiritual standard or testimony of the Assembly, and the accusation proves to be true, the person in question shall be called before the Pastor and, where deemed to be necessary, a Disciplinary Committee comprising the Church Board, and one or two mature members at the discretion of the Pastor (Matthew 18:15-17; 1 Corinthians 6:1-5).
- 9.10.7.2 The purpose of this committee shall be to correct the fault (2 Corinthians 7:8, 9), restore the delinquent member (Galatians 6:1; Matthew 6:15), protect the testimony of the Assembly (1 Timothy 3:7), and preserve the members from bad influence (1 Corinthians 5:6-7).
- 9.10.7.3 The accusation must be proved by trustworthy witnesses (1 Corinthians 5:3) before any disciplinary action is instituted.

- 9.10.7.5 The Committee shall strive to discover the truth. The accused shall be given every opportunity to prove his innocence if he denies the charge(s). If the accusation is well founded the delinquent shall be exhorted to repentance in a spirit of love and prayer that he may be re-established in the Lord (2 Corinthians 2:7-8).
- 9.10.7.6 In the event that the delinquent shows a spirit of repentance and asks forgiveness of the Assembly he shall be forgiven.

- 9.10.7.7 Discipline shall not be imposed as punishment but as a means of testing the sincerity of the delinquent's repentance and also to give the members of the Assembly and the outsiders the opportunity to see that the person in question has been restored in the ways of the Lord before he is allowed to enjoy full privileges of membership once again (see Numbers 12:1).
- 9.10.7.8 Discipline shall normally be imposed for a period of two (2) to four (4) months (beginning after the delinquent has confessed his fault) as the committee shall judge necessary. This period may be exceeded in special cases. During this period the person in question shall be deprived of membership privileges except attending services, which shall be obligatory.
- 9.10.7.9 Should the delinquent persist in wrongdoing and be unrepentant before the Lord his name shall be removed from the membership list. However, he may continue to attend services in the hope that he would return to obedience to the Lord (1 Corinthians 5:13).
- 9.10.7.10 If such a person, after having lost his membership in the Assembly, should repent and desire to be reinstated, he should present his request to the Church Board in writing. The Board shall restore the member under such conditions it deems appropriate in accordance with Scripture.
- 9.10.7.11 Any member out of fellowship in his home Assembly shall be considered out of fellowship in all the other Assemblies in the Fellowship and any wrong committed in his home Assembly must be made right before he can be accepted into fellowship at another Assembly.

SECTION 3

CODE OF ETHICS AND CONDUCT STATEMENT

THE PENTECOSTAL ASSEMBLIES OF THE WEST INDIES

CODE OF ETHICS AND CONDUCT STATEMENT

1. Rationale for the Code

And working together with Him, we also urge you not to receive the grace of God in vain— giving no cause for offense in anything, so that the ministry will not be discredited. (2 Corinthians 6:1, 3)

Only conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ . . . (Philippians 1:2).

The Pentecostal Assemblies of the West Indies Code of Ethics and Conduct Statement is created pursuant to PAWI Bylaws 3.9.1, 5.7.4.1, and 6.2.1.

2. Preamble

Ministry is a call to serve both God and people. Credentialed Holders are firstly accountable to God (1 Corinthians 4:4-5), but also to church members and those who receive ministry (Ephesians 4:1-2). Credential Holders are public figures whose lives are on display and are viewed with considerable public scrutiny. The role of the minister encompasses a maze of responsibilities. Within these countless experiences of daily living, the field is ripe for ethical dilemmas. A high degree of conformity is expected with the biblical call to holiness (Matthew 5:48; Titus 2:7-8). Accordingly, ministerial relationships are to be characterized by love, justice, care, and compassion (Micah 6:8). As stated by Joe Trull (January 2003) a code of ethics “will not keep anybody from sinning, nevertheless, a good code of ethics, rightly used, is an encourager to do the right thing” Additionally, it is expected that every profession should have a code of conduct that sets an example of excellence for the society in which it seeks to minister.

3. The Purpose of the Code

PAWI is a Christian organization committed to advancing Christian principles, this Code of Conduct is reflective of its belief. PAWI believes it is imperative to be clear with Credentialed Holders, Executive Boards, and Church Staff about its expectation that they uphold the highest Biblical standards of conduct, personally and professionally. The code of ethics is a set of principles for ministerial behavior. The laws of society provide a general standard; but that is only the beginning. The code of ethics calls for a rise above the minimum.

This document aims to present guidelines for the Biblical and ethical discharge of service or duty by PAWI Ministers referred to in Bylaw 6.2.

The guidelines are designed to identify areas, articulate relevant principles, note areas of caution, and state what is clearly prohibited in terms of biblical conduct for Credential Holders of PAWI.

4. OUTLINE OF CODE

The code of ethics is specific enough to give real-life application but broad enough for the inevitable unaddressed issues that arise. This code of ethics will not address every potential conundrum. That would be as futile as it is cumbersome. Instead, the code offers general guidelines and rules that uphold core values for a variety of unforeseen situations. The structure consists of Values; Principles; Statements of Intent and Guidelines/Rules.

Values: The starting point for the code is the values that are integral to the Pentecostal Assemblies of the West Indies International, all decision making is based on these.

Principles: The principles present the values in an understandable way; they are positive assertions of how the minister fleshes out the value. They are basic truths, concept or motivating force that addresses appropriate areas of conduct for Credential Holders

Statements of Intent: The rationale underlying a principle and why that ethical principle is important to PAWI and its overall goals and mission.

Guidelines/Rules: The criteria for decision making that are specific to PAWI. These guidelines and rules may prohibit certain actions and require others. The guidelines provide a basis for ethical decision making for Credential Holders and employees. Rules where used have a standard setting function. They may draw on biblical instructions, or existing law as a source or they may lay down other obligations for the fellowship.

5. PURITY

5.1 Value: Godliness. A demonstration of our adherence to the virtues of God.

13.1.8 Core Principle

- 5.1.0.1 PAWI believes that the relationship of marriage is between one man and one woman, and that God intends that those who enter into marriage shall seek mutual love and respect to live as one man and one woman in Christian fidelity as long as they both shall live. Therefore, PAWI follows the biblical formula of being born male and female as constituting manhood and womanhood.
- 5.1.0.2 PAWI believes that God specifically and expressly condemns sexual intercourse outside of the marriage covenant (Exo. 20:17; Matt 5:27-28). This prohibition applies to married persons committing adultery, to sexual relationships between unmarried men and woman, and because God intends that the sexual relationship is between male and female, to homosexual practice.

5.2 Intent

- 5.2.1 To document PAWI's interpretation of Biblical standards for sexual behaviour and the requirement for Credential Holders to live and minister in accordance with biblical values.
- 5.2.2 To set the standard of purity and be an example for others.
- 5.2.3 To earn individual respect and increase our credibility with those we serve

5.3 Guidelines

- 5.3.1 Ministers should be "above reproach" (1 Timothy 3:2). The values of the Gospel of Christ should be obvious to members of the church and wider society (Matthew 5:16; 1 Corinthians 11:1).
- 5.3.2 An effective minister should have a healthy lifestyle and a balance of service, recreation, and family (Ecclesiastes 3:1-11; Titus 1:6).
